JULIUS PALMER.

His Trials With the Hawaiian Rooster.

A N. Y. Sun Washington dispatch says: Hawaiian Minister Hatch and Commissioner Kinney were sitting in the office of the Hawaiian Legation the other night talking about the eccentricities of Capt. Julius Palmer, sometimes called "Duke," secretary to the ex-Queen, Liliuokalani of Hawaii.

"This man Palmer is a very peculiar specimen of mankind," said Kinney. "Did you ever hear about the fun we had with him when he was over in Honolulu three or four years ago? If you haven't, I'll tell you about it. Palmer, you know, is a very nervous sort of chap. The least little noise sets his nerves on edge, and if his digestion is at all impaired he is one of the worst men in the world to get along with. After Palmer had been in Honolulu a few weeks he concluded that the hotel quarters did not suit his taste. There was too much noise about the place. After looking the town over he found a wicked landlord who told him that he had one of the finest rooms in town. 'There is no noise about this place,' said the landlord, 'and you will find everything satisfactory, I think.'

"So Palmer moved his effects into his new quarters. Things went along smoothly for a while, until a stray rooster came into a nearby chicken coop. It was the custom of this rooster to crow about 4 o'clock each morning. Finally Palmer could stand it no longer and complained to the Government authorities about the 'nuisance.' He was assured his rights would be respected, but right here a perplexing question arose. Did Palmer, as an alien, have a right to complain about the crowing of a native rooster? This is the question that agitated the people in Honolulu for several days. If it had been a Yankee rooster, they said, Palmer would have been justified in complaining, but it was not. It was an Asiatic fowl, and of course, had the same rights in a foreign country as Palmer himself.

"The rooster continued to crow, and finally Palmer was forced to move his quarters. He swore, however, before leaving, the islands, that he would 'do' that rooster. When I left Honolulu the rooster was still crowing."

One of the employees of the Cairo apartment house, where Liliuokalani and her suite are staying, is responsible for the following story:

"About 8:30 every evening Palmer, with cautious tread, enters the apartments of Liliuokalani, and kneeling like an old idol worshipper, folds his arms and says: 'Your Majesty, I am ready to retire.'

"Then, with bowed head, he backs out of the room, waving his hands in front of him like one swimming. He closes the door noiselessly, tiptoes to the elevator, and rides down into his floor and retires. Captain Palmer worships Liliuokalani."

LUNAR BOW.

The lunar bow of last evening was one of the best ever seen in Honolulu. It is quite common to see portions of a bow, but a complete lunar bow is a rare phenomena on these islands. The colors were remarkably bright. Observers in Nuuanu valley watched it for over a quarter of an hour, and it gave no signs of fading.

BRITISH PREMIERS.

Care and worry do not seem to shorten the lives of the British Premiers. Gladstone, by completing his 87th year, has broken the record which was held by Lord Sidmouth, who died past 86; Earl Russell died at the same age; the Duke of Wellington at 82, Lord Palmerston and Earl Grey at 81, Earl of Beaconsfield 77, Earl of Aberdeen 76, Earl of Derby 80, Sir Robert Peel 62. Gladstone and Sir Robert Peel are the only two Premiers who were not peers and did not accept a peerage from the Queen.

REASONS WHY CHAMBERLAIN'S CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY IS THE BEST.

1. Because it affords almost instant relief in case of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus.
2. Because it is the only remedy that never fails in the most severe cases of dysentery and diarrhoea.
3. Because it is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea.
4. Because it is the only remedy that will prevent bilious colic.
5. Because it is the only remedy that will cure epidemic dysentery.
6. Because it is the only remedy that can be depended upon in cases of cholera infantum.
7. Because it is the most prompt and most reliable medicine in use for bowel complaints.
8. Because it produces no bad results.
9. Because it is pleasant and safe to take.
10. Because it has saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world.
